I.

On February 25, 2019, Defendant Carlos Marroquin (“Defendant”) made his initial appearance in this district on the Indictment filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California, Case No. 2:18-CR-00892-AB-26.

The Court conducted a detention hearing based on a motion by the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)] in a case allegedly involving serious risk that Defendant will flee.

The Court concludes that the Government is entitled to a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions reasonably will assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any person or the community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)] ("Presumption").

II.

The Court finds that Defendant has not rebutted the Presumption and that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure:

- the appearance of the defendant as required;
- the safety of any person or the community.

The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

As to risk of non-appearance:

- History of warrants;
- Prior failures to appear evidenced in Defendant's criminal and DMV records;
- Unverified background information;
- No sureties available at this time;
- History of foreign travel; and
- DMV records indicate a different address than that provided to Pretrial Services.

As to danger to the community:

- Nature of the instant allegations;
- Prior criminal record;
- Illicit drug use;
- Violation of parole evidenced in Defendant's criminal record; and

1 • Multistate arrests per prior criminal records (California, Florida, and
2 Georgia).

4 III.

5 In reaching this decision, the Court considered: (a) the nature and
6 circumstances of the offense(s) charged, including whether the offense is a crime
7 of violence, a Federal crime of terrorism, or involves a minor victim or a controlled
8 substance, firearm, explosive, or destructive device; (b) the weight of evidence
9 against the defendant; (c) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and
10 (d) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community. [18
11 U.S.C. § 3142(g).] The Court also considered the report and recommendation of 12 the U.S. Pretrial Services Agency.

13

14 V.

15 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant be detained until trial. The 16 defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for 17 confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 18 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal.
19 The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation
20 with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any 21 attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in
22 which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal
